

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
National Institute of Standards and Technology
Gaithersburg, Maryland 20899-

April 9, 2007

Mr. Larry Stillings
Compliance Worldwide, Inc.
357 Main Street
Sandown, NH 03873

Dear Mr. Stillings:

NIST is pleased to inform you that your laboratory has been recognized by the Radio Research Laboratory (RRL), Ministry of Information and Communication (MIC) under the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation for Telecommunications Equipment Mutual Recognition Arrangement (APEC Tel MRA). Your laboratory is now designated to act as a Conformity Assessment Body (CAB) under Appendix B, Phase I Procedures, of the APEC Tel MRA. The pertinent information about your laboratory's designation is as follows:

CAB Name: Compliance Worldwide, Inc.
Physical Location: 357 Main Street, Sandown, New Hampshire 03873
Identification No.: US0132
Recognized Scope: RRL Notice No. 2005-82, KN-22, RRL Notice No. 2005-131 and KN 61000-4-2, -4-3, -4-4, -4-5, -4-6, -4-8, -4-11

You may submit test data to RRL to verify that the equipment to be imported into Korea satisfies the applicable requirements. The designation of your organization will remain in force as long as its accreditation for the designated scope remains valid and comply with the designation requirements.

Recognized CABs are listed on the NIST website at <http://ts.nist.gov/mra>. Please contact Mr. Jogindar (Joe) Dhillon at (301) 975-5521 or dhillon@nist.gov if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "David F. Alderman".

David F. Alderman
Group Leader, Standards Coordination and Conformity Group
Standards Services Division

Enclosure

cc: Jogindar Dhillon

The logo for the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), consisting of the letters "NIST" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font.